"Language equality in the digital age: Towards a Human Language Project"

Initiated by organisations working on multilingual technologies in 2010, the initiative has been building a network of 40 research partners from 34 countries, dedicated to the technological foundations of a multilingual European information society.

The European Parliament voted upon the joint CULT/ITRE report “State of the Art of Machine Translation – Current Challenges and Future Opportunities”, endorsed by the Committee of the Regions’ resolution, and has established an open linguistic infrastructure in the European Union

The release of 32 volumes on 31 languages, revealing that there is a severe threat of digital extinction for at least 21 European languages (December 2012)

EU-funded project META-NORD (ICT Policy Support Programme) to enhance Europe’s linguistic infrastructure (2011–2015)

EU-funded project T4ME (Seventh Framework Programme) working on technologies for the Multilingual European Information Society (2010–2013)

Established in 2011, META-NET is a network of Excellence consisting of 40 research partners from 27 countries, dedicated to the technological foundations of a multilingual European information society.

The EP voted in support of the “Language equality in the digital age” resolution on September 18, 2018 (45 against and 44 abstentions).

Deadline for final submission on September 18, 2018.

Launch of the Strategic Research and Innovation Agenda titled “Technologies for Overcoming Language Barriers towards a Truly Integrated European Online Market” (April 2015)

Release of 32 volumes in 31 languages, revealing a severe threat of digital extinction for at least 21 European languages.

META-NET White Papers

CONFERENCE "Solutions for Multilingual Europe" (Skopje – June 27/28, 2011)

META-FORUM 2011

Conference "Solutions for Multilingual Europe" (Skopje – June 27/28, 2011)

META-NET

Established in 2011, META-NET is a network of Excellence consisting of 40 research partners from 34 countries, dedicated to the technological foundations of a multilingual European information society.

The EP voted in support of the "Language equality in the digital age" resolution on September 18, 2018 (45 against and 44 abstentions).

Deadline for final submission on September 18, 2018.

Launch of the Strategic Research and Innovation Agenda titled “Technologies for Overcoming Language Barriers towards a Truly Integrated European Online Market” (April 2015)

Release of 32 volumes in 31 languages, revealing a severe threat of digital extinction for at least 21 European languages.

META-NET White Papers

CONFERENCE "Solutions for Multilingual Europe" (Skopje – June 27/28, 2011)

META-NET

Established in 2011, META-NET is a network of Excellence consisting of 40 research partners from 34 countries, dedicated to the technological foundations of a multilingual European information society.